The Center for the Study of Social Inequalities and Health at the Mailman School of Public Health is pleased to invite you to the special seminar

“Medicalization and its Discontents”

presented by

Peter Conrad, PhD
Harry Coplan Professor of Social Sciences and Professor of Sociology at Brandeis University

Professor Conrad is one of the country’s most important medical sociologists. He has engaged in research and writing on identifying hyperactive children, the experience of epilepsy, worksite wellness programs, medical education, and the social meanings of the new genetics. One of his most significant contributions has been the development and analysis of the concept of the medicalization of deviance.

Date/Time: Wednesday, Nov 29th 2 – 3:30 pm
Location: 722 West 168th Street 9th Floor Conference Room
