Psychiatric system survivors, the disabled people's movement, and solidarity: It should work in practice, but can it work in theory?

Presented by Peter Beresford, Ph.D.

Professor of Social Policy, Brunel University in West London

Dr. Peter Beresford is Director of the Centre for Citizen Participation, and has taken a leading role in developing new directions for service-user engagement in research. Dr. Beresford’s talk will be delivered from London via video-conference, and the discussion to follow will be led by professor Kim Hopper.

Thursday November 11th
12:30-2:00pm

Video Conference in Room PH10-405
622 W 168th St, 10th FL
(cte2105@columbia.edu) for more information

If you require disability accommodations, please contact cte2105@columbia.edu at least one week in advance.

Proudly sponsored by the Inequalities Center, the PET program, and the Psychiatric & Neuro-epidemiology Cluster and Social Epidemiology Cluster at the Mailman School