Mailman School of Public Health Equity Grant

Co-sponsored by the Office for Diversity, Culture, and Inclusion and the Office of Student Affairs

The Mailman School of Public Health Equity Grant administered by the Office of Diversity, Culture, and Inclusion and the Office of Student Affairs supports student groups at the Mailman School of Public Health in their effort to create projects and programming that advance structural competency, or an understanding of the relationship between determinants of health and systemic inequality, and cultural humility, or “the ability to maintain an interpersonal stance that is other-oriented” (Hook, Davis, Owen, Worthington, and Utsey, 2013, p.2). This grant is available to students through a short application and proposal process. The average award is between $400 and $700.
